Dear CSSI members, friends, and supporters:

Peace I leave with you; My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. (John 14:27)

These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of good cheer: I have overcome the world. (John 16:33)

With the dramatic increase of both military and “trade” wars in our world today, I thought it would be a good idea just to be reminded of the peace that God not only offers, but promises to us in these difficult and uncertain times. I just didn’t realize there were over 400 references to peace in the Bible from which to choose. (Lev 26:6; Ph 4:7; Heb 13:20; Col 3:15; Ga 5:22 etc.)

Everywhere we look in the world today, conflict and strife seem to be on the increase. Not only is Israel in open war with its enemies, but other nations are either involved in military conquest (like Russia) or seem to be preparing for imminent engagements. As a Christian, it is not hard to see that the world’s hostilities really are a symptom of individual internal discord and futile efforts to find purpose, fulfillment and peace without a relationship with our Creator.

Throughout God’s Word, Jesus is proclaimed to be the “Prince of Peace” (Is 9:6), and the only true source of authentic, lasting, genuine, internal peace that seems so elusive on earth today. And although it seems difficult to believe, when looking at the world’s nations today, Jesus Christ will someday return and bring the whole world the peace it cannot achieve on its own.

Whatever the future holds in both military and economic battles, we can be confident in the ultimate authority of Christ and His promised peaceful paradise for those of us that put our trust in the source of pure eternal love, joy and peace.

CREATION CELEBRATION. Although it will probably be over by the time you read this letter, we are very thankful that the people at Fairhaven Bible Chapel in Saskatoon are again holding this annual event on March 29, 2025. It is a great time of fun, fellowship, and learning where children and youth recite memorized Scripture passages and participate in Bible quizzing along with playing games and acquiring an abundance of great creation resources.

DISCERNING THE TIMES CONFERENCE. We were thankful and blessed to be able to attend this annual conference in Saskatoon on March 14 & 15 and to have a book table there. There were four great speakers and a lot of Biblical learning. We also had fruitful discussions with several people and many of them went home with useful Creation resources.

If you missed the conference and want to watch the sessions, they will soon be posted on their website at <www.discerning-the-times.com>.

Continued over.
